Welcome you to Futaleufu
Spring 2013

Ready to rock ? through Terminator, Casa de Piedra, Inferno ... raft the waves of the mighty Futaleufu and hang tight....

Ready to roll? Kayaking & ducky-ing down Rio Espolon is as fun as it gets... good time to practice that roll ...

Ready to ride? through the Andes, in the temperate rainforests of northern Patagonia you will meet coihues, lengas, manios, martin pescador, chucao, treilers , trees and fauna that inhabit these forests/

Join Backwoods Adventures and H2O Patagonia for a week of pure adventure and fun! We guarantee you will love every minute !

An H2O representative will be at your arrival point to welcome you and accompany the group to Campo Antucamay, H2Os base camp on the upper section of the Futaleufu River.

Your days begin with morning stretches, walks, a dip in the river perhaps.... and a healthy, home-style breakfast. Then off you go to wherever you will go ... return to camp and relax with a massage , a soak in the hot tub, cocktails, an afternoon hike ...

In the evenings, after an incredible dinner with fine Chilean wines, relax around the fire, gather on the deck and amaze yourselves with the southern sky and the stillness of the outdoors.

During your stay, you will also meet and share with local campesinos & campesinas their stories, culture & traditions. Taste the famous mate, a typical patagonian green tea, enjoyed by both natives of the land and those who have chosen to live here.

You won't see the week pass you by ... and we say adios where we first said hola... and off you go, to wherever you will go with many memories of a time gone by
