

ESPIRITU SANTO

SEA KAYAKING CAMP

Join Stef from Backwoods for a paddling adventure in Baja!

This Thanksgiving adventure takes you paddling around the protected waters of Espiritu Santo Island, a UNESCO World Heritage Site praised for its pristine beauty and hearty biodiversity. Stef and the crew from Baja Expeditions will ensure that this trip will be remembered as a trip of a lifetime! We will spend our nights in camp in comfortable safari style tents with all the toys at our disposal! We will paddle around the protected bays, taking time to explore the cliffs, snorkel with playful sea lions, and sit on the shore and watch the pelicans dive-bombing for dinner as we sip happy hour cocktails awaiting a delicious dinner prepared by the crew!

Our friendly crew and added creature comforts—such as roomy 2-man safari style tents, sleeping bags, sheets, pillows, raised beds, and solar-heated showers—make your days and nights in camp effortless.

Call 208-634-5750 or stop by the North Beach Boat Ramp to book your space. You may stay additional nights for $250/p dbl occ. Kids discounts available: under 6 – free; under 11 – $810, under 18 – $1135. One double-occupancy hotel room included in trip price, additional rooms are available for $175/night. Taxi vouchers to/from La Paz airport and Conservation Fees included in trip price.

WHAT TO EXPECT

November 19 – 26th 2011

$1620/Adult - double occupancy

*Two nights 5-Star resort / Five nights comfortable, catered camping on an uninhabited island.

*All-inclusive on island- snorkel gear, kayaks, all food and activities.

*Level of difficulty: Easy; all activities are optional.

*Maximum no. of participants: 16 adults / 14 kids (sleep in small tent)

